No special arrangement was made. On one of the occasions the special gauge inspector temporarily entertained for supervising Ganja cultivation was available for the purpose. Sometimes the inspectors in charge of the distillery attended to the work. Perhaps the work of the distillery was not very heavy then.

Offg: Inspector General of Police in charge of the Office of the Excise Commissioner in Mysore.

To

K.R. Srinivasaiengar, Esq., M.A.,

Offg: Secretary to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,
General and Revenue Departments.

SIR,

I have the honor to state that one S.N. Krishnaswamy, - -- Excise Inspector, Chikballapur Range, who was on one month's privilege from the 13th June 1911, was immediately after the expiry of his leave deputed to the Government Central Distillery to verify the - - consignments of Ganja that had then arrived from Duggapad Storehouse. As this work could not be attended to by the local Excise Inspector without prejudice to his work this Official was employed on this duty from the 13th July to 23rd July 1911 and as the Comptroller considers this to be a special duty requiring the sanction of Government, I request that you may be so good as to kindly obtain the sanction of Government for having employed the official on special duty.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

for Excise Commissioner.
